Dear Gail:

Enclosed is the organization's 2023 Exempt Organization return. The return should be signed, dated, and mailed.

Specific filing instructions are as follows.

FORM 990 RETURN:

Please sign and mail on or before May 15, 2025.

Mail to:

Department of the Treasury Internal Revenue Service Center Ogden, UT 84201-0027

A copy of the return is enclosed for your files. We suggest that you retain this copy indefinitely.

PUBLIC INSPECTION COPY

You are required to make your return available for public inspection. This may be accomplished in a variety of ways including supplying a copy for reasonable copying and postage fees, or posting the form on the internet. However, there are certain schedules in the form that are not required to be provided. These schedules generally include information about donors.

In addition to the public disclosure requirements, you may be required to file a copy of the form with other regulatory agencies. Finally, many funding sources request a copy on an annual basis.

Because of these rules, we have provided a public inspection copy. This is the copy that should be used when making the form available for public inspection. We have removed the schedules that are not subject to public inspection requirement, if any.

Signature: The public inspection copy should be signed and dated by an officer representing the organization.

FILE COPY

This is a complete copy of your form that should be retained in your files. This file copy should not be used for public inspection purposes. You need not sign and date this copy.

Very truly yours,

Dana Alexander, CPA, CITP Partner
